Dear Vince,

Well, the big decision has finally been made, and I am sure you have read about it in the press. While we didn't come out where you, Jim Taylor, and I planned, we've made substantial progress. I believe if I play the cards right, in a year or two we'll have everything we need. At least I am encouraged and believe we have a good foundation on which to build a stronger control mechanism. Again, I appreciate all your help in getting us pointed in the right direction. Wish I could have brought home the whole bacon but it might not have been workable with the depth of feeling we generated.

I just received your letter about WORLDVIEW. It sounds great and I'll be back in touch as soon as I return from a quick vacation and have had a chance to check out the schedule.

In the meantime, all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
